HARVARD ATHLETES FINED AND FIRED

Cambridge, Mass., June 2.-Follow ing their conviction in the district court of disturbing the peace, John W. Cutler, of Brookline, and Sydney M. Fish, of New York, students at Harvard University, were given "leave to withdraw from the university" by the governing board of the institution. The charge, which resulted in a fine of $10 in the local court, arose from a disturbance in the college yard at 3 o'clock yesterday morning. Two police officers arrested the students.

Cutler is 21 yeers old, a senior, and was quarterback of last year's Harvard football team. He is on the class day committee and expected to take a prominent part in the festivities. His brother is captain of the 'varsity crew.

Fish is at present on parole, as the ing their conviction in the district brother is captain of the 'varsity crew.

Fish is at present on parole, as the result of an escapade about this time last year. He was suspended from the crew, of which he was a member, after he had admitted to surreptitiously taking a book from the college library. This year he took a course in the law school in an attempt to receive the degree which his act of last year had cost him.
